action alleging that the Software Products delivered pursuant to this Agreement (on a stand-alone basis, and not in combination with any other software, system, information or process) infringe or misappropriate any third party's patent, copyright, trade secret, or other intellectual property rights enforceable in the applicable jurisdiction (each, an "Indemnified Claim"). If Licensee makes an Indemnified Claim under this Section or if the Company determines that an Indemnified Claim may occur, the Company shall at its option: (a) obtain a right for Licensee to continue using such Software Product(s); (b) modify such Software Product(s) to make it a non-infringing equivalent or (c) replace such Software Product(s) with a non-infringing equivalent. A receiving party shall promptly notify the disclosing party of any misuse or misappropriation of Confidential Information of which it is aware. With respect to each item of Confidential Information, the obligations of nondisclosure will terminate three years after the date of disclosure; provided that, such obligations related to Confidential Information constituting the Company's trade secrets shall continue so long as such information remains subject to trade secret protection pursuant to applicable law. Upon termination of this Agreement, a party shall return all copies of Confidential Information to the other or certify the destruction thereof. This Agreement does not transfer ownership of Confidential Information or grant a license thereto. Notwithstanding anything in this Section to the contrary, the parties expressly acknowledge that Confidential Information may be disclosed if such Confidential Information is required to be disclosed by law, a lawful public records request, or judicial order, provided that prior to such disclosure, written notice of such required disclosure shall be given promptly and without unreasonable delay by the receiving party in order to give the disclosing party the opportunity to object to the disclosure and/or to seek a protective order. 12. SEVERABILITY. If any provisions of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions shall continue to be valid and enforceable. If a court finds that any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, but that by limiting such provision it would become valid or enforceable, then such provision shall be deemed to be written, construed, and enforced as so limited.
13. FORCE MAJEURE. If a Party is delayed in performance for any reason beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to, riots, wars, terrorist acts, executive order, fires, accidents, explosions, natural disasters, or epidemics, then the time allowed for performance shall be extended on a day-for-day basis. The delayed Party promptly will provide written notice of any such event causing a delay in performance, which notice will describe the basis for the delay, the estimated duration, and the steps being taken to mitigate the delay.

14. WAIVER, AMENDMENT, ASSIGNMENT. No amendment, assignment or waiver of this Agreement or its term and conditions is valid unless it is in writing, specifically refers to this Agreement, and is signed by authorized representatives of both parties. Any amendment or waiver will be limited to the specific situation for which it is given. No other action or failure to act (including inspection, failure to inspect, acceptance of late deliveries, or acceptance of or payment for any Products) will constitute a waiver of any rights. This Section shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement and will continue to bind the parties and their successors and assigns.
15. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties as subject to matter herein and may not be amended, waived, or modified in any way, except if the amendment is made in writing and is signed by both parties.
16. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS. Company and Licensee shall comply with all laws, ordinances, codes, rules, regulations, and licensing requirements that are applicable to the conduct of its operations and the performance of this Agreement, including those of federal, state, and local agencies having jurisdiction and/or authority. 17. GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement, any claim dispute or controversy hereunder (a “Dispute”) will be governed by (i) the laws of the State of Texas, or (ii) if Customer is a city, county, municipality or other governmental entity, the law of state where Customer is located, in each case foregoing without regard to its conflicts of law. The UN Convention for the International Sale of Goods and the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act will not apply. In any Dispute, each party will bear its own attorneys’ fees and costs and expressly waives any statutory right to attorneys’ fees. The parties agree to waive, to the maximum extent permitted by law, any right to a jury trial with respect to any Dispute.

For the avoidance of doubt, de-identified Licensee Data shall not be subject to this provision.
19. Injunctive Relief. 22. Third Party Rights. The terms of this Addendum do not grant any rights to any parties other than Business Associate and the Covered Entity.
